

KULU - WOMEN and DEVELOPMENT (KULU)
and the CENTRE OF AFRICAN STUDIES (CAS), University of Copenhagen, invite you to:

Women, Power and Partnership: A Conversation. Zimbabwe in Focus

Thursday 28 October, 16.30 – 18.30

Centre of African Studies, UCPH South Campus

IN CONVERSATION:

Hope Chigugu:

Feminist activist and expert in feminist movement building and leadership development, Zimbabwe and Uganda

Bjørn Førde:

Writer and development practitioner within the NGO and UN sectors

Janice G Førde:

Chairperson of KULU and gender and development consultant

The conversation will be moderated by Amanda Hammar, Professor of African Studies at the Centre of African Studies, Zimbabwean, and former development practitioner

45
YEARS

AS PART OF ITS CELEBRATION of 45 years of engaged work with women's and girls' rights in development, KULU has partnered with the Centre of African Studies at Copenhagen

University to explore questions related to Women, Power and Partnership in Africa, with a special focus on Zimbabwe. To reflect on such questions, the event brings into conversation differently positioned yet linked contributors, all with some relationship to past and present dynamics of women, power and partnership in Zimbabwe.

VENUE: Kirkegaard Auditorium, Ground Floor Building 09, South Campus, København Universitet, København 2300 S
(best to enter via Karen Blixens Plads 16)

See campus map at: <https://teol.ku.dk/cas/contact/> ▪ The meeting takes place in English ▪ Registration encouraged at: kulu@kulu.dk